

PatchRap eases connection between control electronics and entire CNC machines, like multi-tool 3D printers.

Notably, only one wire is needed for each limit switch, probe, or thermistor. Integrated stepper driver module support allows efficient two-wire command of distant motors.

